so named as a living tribute to a revered and service-minded Pike Countian, Champ Clark, who was educator; attorney; State Legislator; U.S. Congressman; and, in 1911, Speaker of the Sixty-second Congress of the United States; and who, in the presidential campaign of 1912, led on the first 27 ballots, but failed to muster the necessary two-thirds majority and was finally defeated by Woodrow Wilson.

Though born in Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, in 1850, Champ gave himself in service to the people in this area for 50 years and his funeral and interment were held in Bowling Green, on March 2, 1921.

Each BGHS yearbook bearing the name "Speaker" tries to render the same service to the student body and school it represents.

Foreword

Every book has a purpose--the purpose of a yearbook is, briefly, to record the life of a school for a given year.

This yearbook in particular follows simply these three ideas:

- (1) This is the environment,
- (2) These are the people, and
- (3) Their activities

as it was at BGHS in the year 1964-65.

FINALE 184

Also dark-haired and dark-eyed, Nicky Deters was elected junior class king candidate. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deters of St. Clements.

"Tall, dark, and handsome" Eddie Feldmann, won top vote for senior class candidate. Ed is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Feldmann of St. Clements.

King's Court

Mr. Paul McClelland, Hannibal radio station KHMO sports broadcaster, selected the 1964-65 Speaker King and Queen after the candidates were nominated by BGHS classes. Mr. McClelland has announced BGHS basketball games for the past four years.

One boy and one girl representative was elected by popular vote from each class on the basis of presenting the most pleasing appearance.

"Dark and dashing" Monty Branstetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Branstetter of Curryville, represented the freshman class in King competition.

Senior girl representative, sandy-haired, light-complected Vicki Tucker, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tucker of Frankford.

Myrna Clark, freshman class representative, has brown hair and blue eyes and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everly Clark, Jr., of Bowling Green.

Queen's Ladies

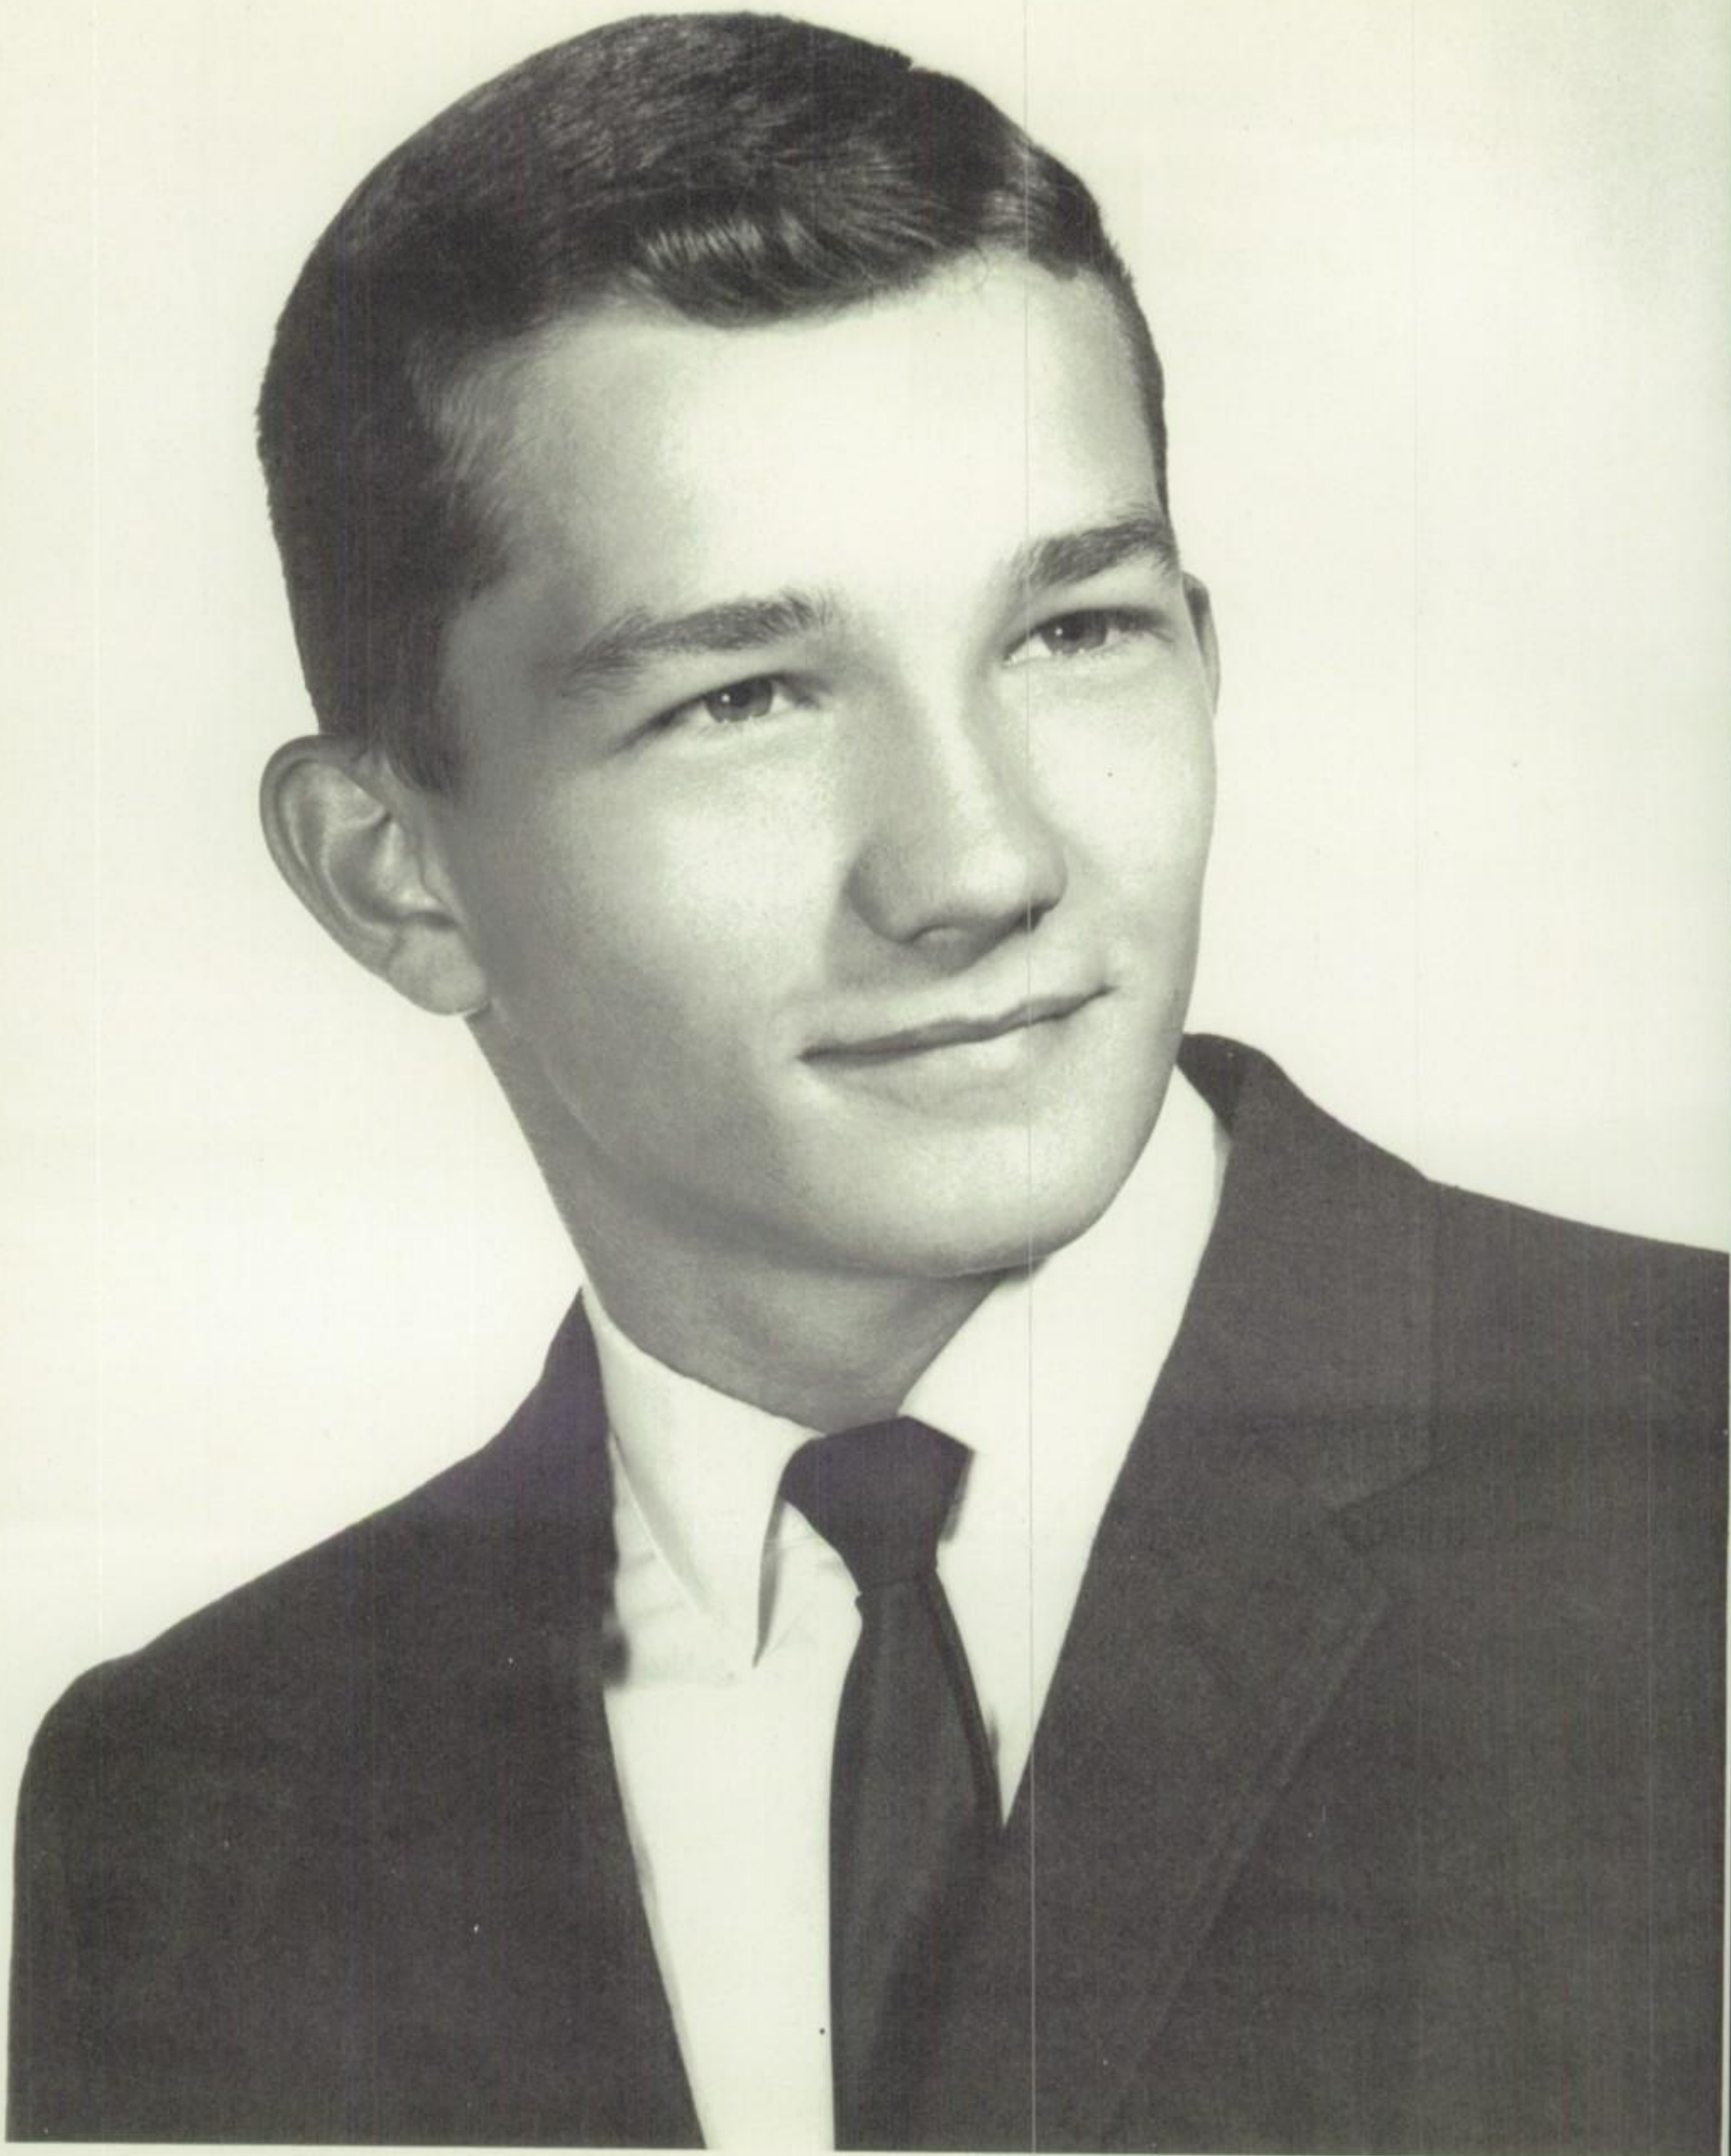

"Pleasing appearance personified," this year's King and Queen are Bruce Storts and June Couch. (Both are Sophomore class candidates.)

The only blonde in male competition, Bruce may well become the pin-up of many a young lady's bulletin board. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Storts of Bowling Green.

Sweet and smiling, June is just as sweet and "Springy" as her name. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Couch of Bowling Green.

Dark-haired, dark-eyed Kathy Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chappell of Bowling Green, represented the junior class.

Once in a while it's shocking to remember the courses agreed upon a few months earlier.

Freshman enrollment day!

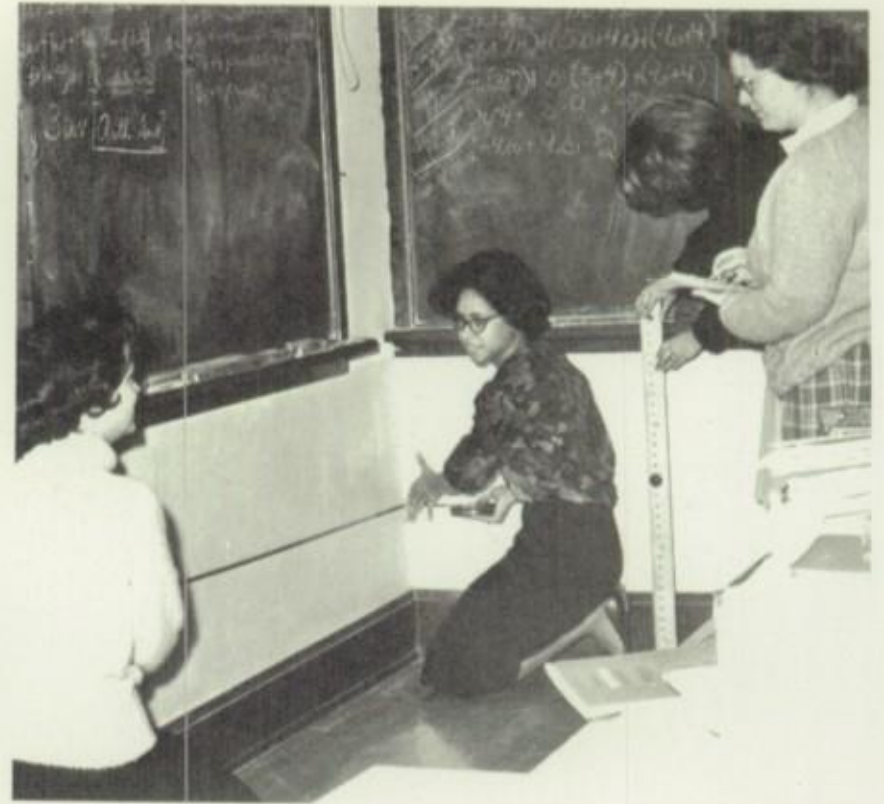

Environment Begins with Enrollment

Students' programs are pre-planned the year before as far as possible through the school's guidance service. Actual enrollment begins late in August the week before classes start.

The process begins at the east end of the first-floor hallway at BGHS and students work past check points set up in the cafeteria getting schedule approval, course cards, locker assignments, activity tickets, yearbooks, . . .

Starting all over again.

Source of Inspiration, Encouragement

We, the 1964-65 "Speaker" staff wish to dedicate this yearbook to you who have influenced us to improve our loyalty to our school, faith in ourselves, brought school spirits to their highest, and finds no school activity too small to attend.

To you who have served BGHS for six years, and have encouraged us to climb the stairway in life even though we stand in the shadow of our faults and mistakes, we respectfully dedicate the '64-'65 "Speaker" to our principal, Mr. George H. Nienhueser.

Baseball Begins Early

This year's Bobcats compiled a 4-2 record, good enough for second place in the EMO conference.

A last-day defeat by Montgomery R-II knocked the Cats out of first place. Bill McPike was the team's leading pitcher with 3-0; Mike Rogers had a 1-2 record.

Rogers also led the team in hitting with a .500 batting average. John Weber was next with .400.

Sept. 2 was opening date and the BG 9 downed Troy 6-5 in a night game. Clopton came next on Sept. 8. Scoring 4 runs in the seventh inning, the Hawks went home with a 9-6 win over Bowling Green.

BGHS's all-conference shortstop, John Weber, trots across the plate in a 4-3 victory over Wellsville; first baseman, Ed Woods, strains to keep a toe on the bag for the put-out. Catcher, David Straube, walks eloquently back to the dug out in the shortest round trip in baseball.

Brings Fall's First Activity

Shutting out Elsberry 11-0 put the 'Cats back in the win column. In an extra-inning game at Van-Far, BG was outhit 9-2 but won 3-1, scoring two runs in the top of the eighth. The next victory was a 4-3 win over Wellsville.

In the final game, Montgomery R-II whalloped

BG 15-1, ending Bobcat hopes for a conference crown.

Second baseman and utility pitcher, Mike Rogers; shortstop, John Weber; and centerfielder, Ted Smith were named to the EMO all-conference baseball team.

Lose EMO Crown

BGHS cross-country track team won two meets from Van-Far this year beating the Indians there on Sept. 25 and again on Oct. 9, with Mexico also running.

Bowling Green lost to Hannibal on Oct. 6, and later in the season placed second in a meet held at Mexico with Hannibal, Montgomery City, and Van-Far running.

Bowling Green placed seventh at the Hancock invitational meet held in St. Louis on Oct. 10.

Carl Kent placed 26th among the 160 participants in the district track meet Oct. 23 at Warrenton. He also placed 33rd in a field of 40 at the state meet on Oct. 31.

BGHS varsity track team won three invitational meets (beating Clopton and Elsberry on April 2; Wellsville on April 6) but lost their EMO conference crown to Warrenton April 27.

Phillip Stapleton set a new conference and school record at the EMO conference at Warrenton in the low hurdles in 21.15 sec.

Bowling Green placed third out of 16 teams participating in the Louisiana Invitational Track Meet April 16.

James Rose placed fourth in the half mile run at the District meet held in Kirksville. Bowling Green did not qualify for the state meet.

Bursting from the starting block is BGHS 880 relay lead-off man, James Rose. He was undefeated in the half-mile until a leg injury hampered his running. Low-hurdle speedster Danny Stapleton shows how he broke the jr. varsity school track record for this event, running the course in 23.6. Charlie Brown was the former champion with a 23.85 mark. "The last step!" gasps undefeated Wayne Wendel as he breaks the tape in the mile run.

Intramurals are school sponsored contests. Coach James Wilson, athletic director, is the supervisor. Intramurals give all the students a chance to participate.

Each year there are table tennis, volleyball, basketball, paddle tennis, badminton, flag football and softball tournaments. Both boys and girls participate in all games except flag football which is for boys only and volleyball which is for girls only.

"If I could just wham my typewriter like this!" moans Louis Niemeyer--but he has to be content to take his vengeance out on a volleyball. Teammates Ted Smith and Ed Woods (background) watch his smash sail across the net.

Junior Debby Wilhoit and senior Mike Rogers emerge as champions of table tennis intramurals. First place intramural winners receive 65 points toward an intramural letter.

Chance to Earn School Letter

Ernestine Shepherd and Dottie Deters battle for the ball in an intramural game. Teammates Janet Scherder and Donna Davis make ready to grab the tip off.

Tournaments are held in the grade school gym and are open to the public. Because of poor participation, the games were almost discontinued last year but Coach Wilson agreed to give it another chance.

Students taking part, are given points for attendance, games won, and tournaments won. Those with enough points receive a letter at the end of the year.

Test Youth for Fitness

Each fall and spring, physical fitness tests are given as part of the P.E. program at BGHS and the scores from the seven events are averaged. Standings of the students are then compared to the state and national averages.

Sit-ups, pull-ups, broad jump, shuttle run, softball throw, 50-yard dash, and 600-yard run are the testing areas.

Tests are rated with an evaluation chart scoring 4 1/2 points for excellent, 3 for good, 2 for satisfactory, and 1 point for poor. Best possible scores are 31.5 for girls and 60 for boys.

No records are established for sit-ups; 99 sit-ups earn an excellent score and students who reach that number are required to stop.

"It looks as if the only way out is to climb this rope," muses Betty Lawson as she waits for Cathy Fitzgerald to "broadjump" for Ass't Coach Gary Wacker. Next in line is Donna Davis and Verna Miller.

"Where do I go from here," wonders Chris Straube, as he applies the brakes and hopes that teammate Dick Basye will break in toward the lane.

This year's Bobcats ended the season with a 19 and 11 record, placed second in the Bowling Green Tournament, finished third in the Owensville and in the Jeff City Invitational Tournaments.

Their 9-5 conference record placed the Bobcats behind Clopton and Wellsville in the EMO Conference. Ervin Grote, senior Bobcat, was named to the EMO all-conference team. He also led the team in rebounds with 407 breaking the school record which was previously held by Tom Feldmann.

BGHS senior Ed Feldmann was named on the honorable mention to the EMO all-conference team.

Bowling Green, Business Booster

Two of the Bobcats' "unsung heroes" were Managers Ron Comer and Melvin Woods, who kept equipment and uniforms in good condition, doctored minor injuries for the players, kept score books and tabulated team records.

This year's varsity team had five seniors, three juniors, and three sophomores.

Mr. Dave Kissinger completed his third year as head coach at BG with a 19 and 11 record.

Mr. Gary Wacker was in his second term as assistant coach at BGHS.

There's no doubt about who's in possession of this rebound--it's Bobcat, Bill Campbell!

Under the direction of Band Board President, Eddie Woods, these students volunteered--John Farr, Dwaine Miller, Bruce Storts, Robert Birkhead, Larry Grinstead, Kim Parrish, Mary J. Cradling individual awards for outstanding athletic achievement are Terry Flood (l), Mike Rogers, Phillip Stapleton and Ervin Grote (r). Terry and Mike tied for top free-throw percentage of the year (68), and Terry won another award for best defensive player. Phillip had the highest scholastic average of this year's BGHS athletic teams, and Erv set a new school rebounding record, 408.

All Athletes Honored

Approximately 300 persons attended the annual BGHS Athletic Banquet, sponsored by the pep squad.

This banquet is given annually in the honor of the "Bobcats," which included track, cross country, basketball, and baseball playing.

Athletic director James A. Wilson, Coach Dave Kissinger, and Coach Gary Wacker presented letters, bars, and numerals to the boys eligible in these activities.

Pep squad letters and bars were presented by Miss Betty Hemme, and Miss Joyce Wiley, pep squad sponsors. Members must have earned 80% of all possible points required for a letter by attending home and away games, away tourneys, BG tourney, practices, committees, holding an office, or being a cheerleader.

The sports queen was chosen by popular vote of the student body with athletic boys receiving bonus votes. The queen was selected for leadership, school spirit, sportsmanship, willingness to work, and an interest in each sport. The queen received a crown, flowers, and a gift. Her court was also presented with gifts.

Tickets to the banquet were sold by athletic boys and pep squad members for $1.75.

Annual Tourney

The BGHS pep squad was responsible for decorating the gym, planning a queen crowning ceremony, working at the pass gate, selling homemade candy, and providing hostesses for visiting pep squads.

Local men volunteered as hosts for visiting teams.

Eight teams were seeded in the 40th annual Bowling Green invitational tournament; Hermann-1; Bowling Green-2; Mark Twain-3; Wellsville-4; Van-Far-4; Montgomery R-II-5; Louisiana-7; Missouri Military Academy-8. The first two seedings held.

Attendance was limited by a new safety ruling passed by the local school board. Spectators were not allowed to stand on the gym floor or in the doorways during games.

The Future Farmers of America members took responsibility for parking cars during the tournament. Arrangements in general were under the supervision of Athletic Director, James A. Wilson.

Tournament decorations started "low" and took a lot of hands. Maintenance men, teachers, and students combined efforts to erect tournament brackets and a theme legend: "May the best team win!"

What are tigers made of? "Posterboard and paints and the fearless hands of these volunteer pep-squad workers who are designing mascots for brackets.

"Only time for a snack," says Mr. Mallory who was tournament traffic supervisor. Right now, he's patronizing the homemade candy booth which has become a tournament tradition.

The food concession was almost as popular as the stands. This year's fans devoured 1,475 hamburgers, 216 hotdogs, 60 boxes of gum and candy bars, 600 doughnuts, and drank between 500-750 cups of coffee and the equivalent of 110 cases of soda.

Winter's Finale

Miss Barbara Artus, Louisiana High School cheer leader, was crowned queen of the tourney by BGHS Superintendent, Mr. Murry Smith.

Voting was done at the BGHS pep squad queen booth for 1¢ a vote. Other candidates were Trudie O'Conner from Mark Twain and Angela Gibbson from Wellsville.

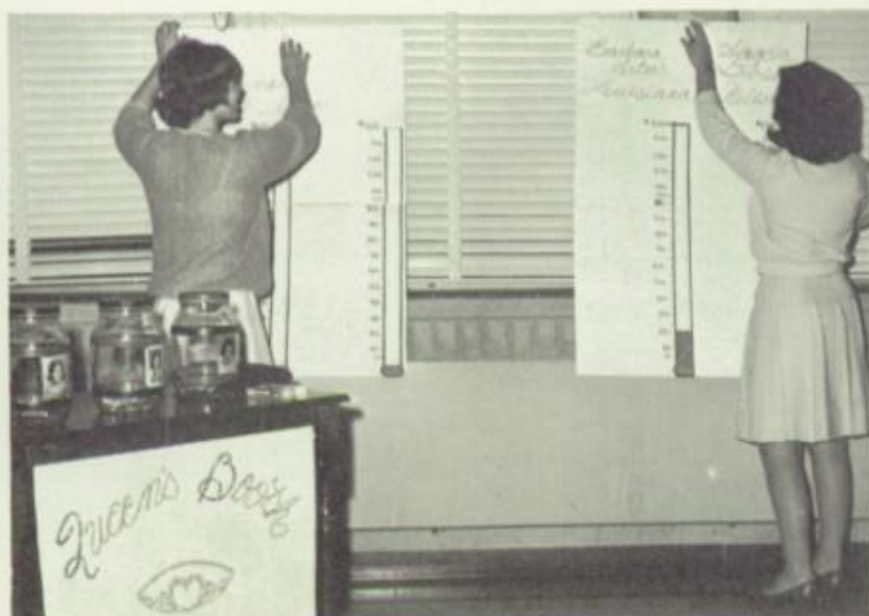

Mark Twain's pep squad was named the best pep squad in another tournament contest.

Squads were chosen by secret judges on the basis of appearance, performance, and contribution to the game. It was Mark Twain's second consecutive win.

Special trophies were donated by local businessmen--Hiles Shoe Store gave the sportsmanship and Mr. and Mrs. Olin Bell the free-throw.

Miss Barbara Artus, third consecutive queen from Louisiana High School, maintained her lead throughout the tourney. BGHS supplied the escort (Walter Northcutt) and the crowner (Supt. Murry S. Smith.)

Getting ready for the race, BGHS pep squadders set up the queen-contest voting booth.

The Bobcat's own Ed Feldmann (50) was top individual scorer in the entire tourney netting 55 points.

Bobcats Second

The Bowling Green Bobcats placed just where they were seeded, second, in their own tournament. The team entered the contest with a 604 conference record and an 11-7 overall record.

First seeded Hermann won first place and was awarded the sportsmanship trophy on the vote of participating officials and coaches.

Louisiana Bulldogs won the free throw trophy. Montgomery and Van-Far tied for team scoring with 184 points in 3 games.

All BG tournament and regular season games were carried on radio station KHMO Hannibal, with broadcaster Paul McClelland at the "mike."

The Bobcats won their tournament only twice in its history--1927 and 1948. If this pattern holds true its their turn again in 1969.

Dressing Room Blues

Still tasting a two-point defeat, the Bobcats seem a bit glum even with their shiny second-place trophy.

ACTIVITIES

Marching Begins Music Calendar

Bowling Green High School Band participated in the seventeenth annual Mark Twain Marching Band Festival at Hannibal on October 13.

Twenty-five bands from Missouri and Iowa began the mile and a half march at the Eugene Field School, ending in the city park.

An afternoon rehearsal was followed by a mass evening performance. Five individual bands did stunts and a mass-band performance was conducted by Mr. Harold Cleveland from Rolla, Missouri.

The evening was concluded by a Missouri mule being presented to the West Point Academy.

Terry Flood, (l.); Mike Rogers, Billy Henry and Eddie Woods (r.) looking slightly weary after their long tramp, are putting away the "colors" until the evening performance.

"How many steps d'ya reckon it takes to make a mile, Doug?" question Ronnie May (l.) and Philip Robinson (c.)

Much of the Future Farmers of America activity centers around three annual swine sales. In the September 12 sale James Reichard, BGHS junior sold the top board and the top gilt for $130 each. 157 head of swine were sold in the sale and the average was $60.00 a head.

The average price per head for 149 hogs in the October 10 sale was $53.50. Lee Wankel, BGHS senior sold the top gilt for $100, and Cecil Harness, junior sold the top-rated boar for $105.

In the spring sale, March 20, there were 157 head of hogs and the average for them was $58.64. Top boar, owned by Jimmy Nutter, (graduate member of FFA) sold his for $122.50 and Mike Meyer, BGHS junior member of the FFA, sold his gilt for $100. The six breeds of swine offered for sale were Hampshire, Duroc, Spotted Swine, Black Poland, Chester Whites, and Yorkshire.

FFA Starts Year with Swine Sale

Grooming, judging, and classifying animals preceding sale time is all part of the routine. These three boys wave a "mean" stick, but they've had a lot of practice. David Orf (left), Eddie Horton (center), and Eddie Eastin are old hands in the ring. Keeping all the records straight is the responsibility of Ag Department's secretary, Kay Dunn; see top picture.

"I don't believe it, but that looks like St. Nick," muses narrator Bill Fisher.

Linda Oberman accompanies the Christmas carolers during the concert.

Traditional BGHS Christmas

Sopranoes take their cue from Mr. Raymond Leek, vocal instructor.

"Don't tell anyone, Bill, but I think I see him too," Mr. Stratmann, band instructor, says.

"Humm, I wonder if those kids can really eat all of this," Mrs. Mallory asks Mrs. Woods.

Christmas at BGHS is a pretty musical period highlighted by the annual Christmas Dance and the Christmas concert.

Punch, sandwiches, and cookies were prepared and served by the PTA members and room mothers.

Has Concert; PTA Sponsored Party

"Gee, aren't Christmas parties cozy?," purrs Janet Scherder to escort Terry Flood.

Herbert Saunder's orchestra from Mexico, played for the 14th Annual PTA Sponsored Dance on December 23.

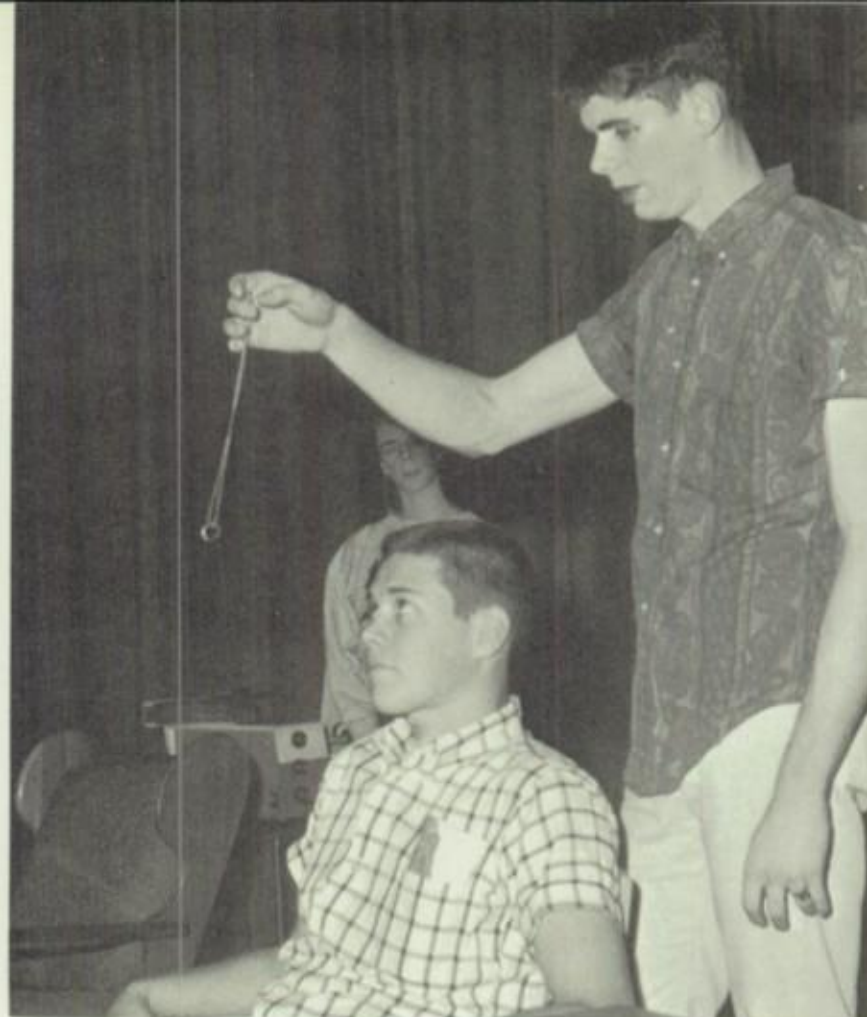

Decorations for the dance were provided by the BGHS Student Council and class officers.

All BGHS bus routes were run to pick up the students wishing to attend the party.

"Do you really believe that big whopper she's telling back there?," questions Eddie Horton.

Fall Is Senior Play Time

"Crewcuts and Longhairs" a three-act comedy revolved around a high-school boy who let himself be hypnotized in a desperate effort to pass an English exam.

His English teacher accidentally became hypnotized too and the two men's personalities became exchanged, complicating the plot.

Northcutt (Biff Weatherspoon), Edwin Miller (Rock Thornton), Jim Marshall (Archer Renford), Eddie Murray (Elwood Turpin), and Eddie Woods (Sam Vigor.) The play was directed by Mrs. Katherine Motley, BGHS English teacher.

The queen and king set the top bale, and that's Kay Landers and Richard Nutter; first attendants are Mary Ann Gillum and Edwin Miller (center); Susan Chapman and Ed Horton (l) and Barbara Morris and Bruce Storts (r) were other attendants.

The Barnwarmin', an annual Fall event, is sponsored through the co-operation of the FHA and FFA. During the evening, the students participated in square dancing as well as several contests.

Although a new event at BGHS, the FFA-FHA Hootenanny surely resounded with enthusiasm as participants danced and presented acts.

Winning Act

These swinging "cool cats" won first place in the talent show of the Hootenanny. Do you think John Farr's (shapely?) legs helped?

This event, sponsored by the FHA and FFA Chapters, was a night of dressing strictly "Hootenannish" fashion, square-dancing to the calls of extension agent, Mr. Allan Sudholt, and keeping time to numbers presented by all students wishing to do so.

Prizes were given for best acts, ranging from $5.00 for first place to $2.00 for third place. Judges were BGHS teachers, Joyce Wiley and Betty Hemme.

"If we don't win this election," say BGHS juniors, "you can't blame it on the campaign manager." This propaganda dominated the second-floor stairwell.

"Hanging out their shingle?" These BGHS juniors are trying to swing votes their way in a Student Council election.

On the Serious Scene

Sure enough--the juniors won! Outgoing president Stapleton welcomes newly elected president Wayne Korte (r).

Campaign Successful

Elections held in '64-65 might be termed as some of the most spectacular, most participated-in, most contested activities the BGHS'ers and the faculty have ever seen.

By popular vote, the most remembered and outstanding election was the one for '64-65 Student Council officers.

It was complete with "favorite sons," "dark horse candidates," campaigning to the extent of flying a full-size sheet with the junior candidates' names on it in the second floor hall and wearing buttons and ribbons bearing "your candidate's" name on it, and even a little "propaganda" (the right kind, of course).

Other elections through the year included FFA, FHA, and class officers' elections.

Hand voting

"College Night," an annual BGHS activity for the past three years, attracted approximately 175 sophomores, juniors, and seniors in 1965.

About 20 Missouri colleges and trade schools were represented including: Missouri University, Mo. State Teachers College, William Woods College, Gem City Business School, Hannibal-LaGrange, Southwest Baptist, Westminster, William Jewell, Cottey College, and Rolla School of Mines.

At "College Night," BGHS'ers and their parents learned about such things as the chances of getting good jobs with and without a college education, the difference in wage ratios, and the courses and accommodations offered by the four college representatives they chose to visit.

Attendees were also given free literature from the school.

FHA Week Keeps Everybody Busy

FHA Week was week set aside at BGHS to honor FHA.

Activities of the week included; Dress-Up Day (in which the entire school administration donned their best bib and tucker); Teacher's Appreciation Day (in which all teachers were given roses and served coffee and rolls during free period); and a Grandparent-Mother-Daughter Banquet (for FHA members, their mothers, and grandparents.)

Due to lack of time, the Daddy-Date Night and Mother-Daughter Tea, two previous FHA Week events, were cancelled.

Prom Is Highlight

of BGHS Social Calendar;

Feminine garb was consistently of the white or pastel colored floor length variety; most of the male populace wore traditional white shirts, ties, and suits with either white or black coats.

A candle-lighted table laden with punch, cookies, and sandwiches had a magnolia-blossom centerpiece and stood on the main floor. The dance floor was illumined with multicolored spotlights.

Southern Serenade was the theme of the junior-senior prom. Decorations for the event included the theme legend in gold on a wall of two-toned green crepe paper, tall white columns in Southern architectural style, magnolia trees, and a backdrop of Southern mansions fronted by ivy-covered brick walls.

Miss Trudie Akers, selected by the BGHS faculty, reigned as Prom Queen. Trudie was crowned by Junior class president, Wayne Korte; and received the traditional rose bouquet from Jr. Secretary, Linda Nutter. Edwin Miller was Her Highness's escort for the evening.

Juniors Are Dramatic, Entertaining

BGHS' most popular musical event of the year, the "Pop Concert" was held on April 30, and followed the theme "Marvin Stratmann's Gaslight Squares."

In addition to performances by the concert band, the agenda included numbers by the boys' chorus, girls' chorus, mixed chorus, choir, and the junior band.

Pop Concert Closes Music Season

Guest musician for the evening was Mr. Alfred Hicks who played an oboe solo "Improvisation and Allegro"--his own composition. The BGHS concert band accompanied him, playing from the original manuscript.

Selections rendered included hits from Broadway musicals, Dixieland jazz tunes, and a "Concert Digest," which was a satire on musical compositions.

David Orf, Bruce Storts, and Danny Lewis composed the FFA meats judging team which also received a I rating in the district contest. These boys also went to the state contest and they received a II rating. Danny was high point man and received a I rating while Dave and Bruce got II ratings.

Two Teams Place

BGHS FFA poultry team, Doug Mallory, Richard Nutter, and Jim Edmond received a I rating in the district contest at Kirksville and were eligible to compete in the state contest which was held at Columbia, April 22 and 23. In that contest, the team received a III rating and all three boys received III ratings. Doug was high point man.

Bobcaster Gets I

With a red head and a blond at the helm (for the second year in a row), the BGHS school paper the BOBCASTER won its fourth one-rating in district contests in as many years. This year's responsibility bearers are editors, Ellen Williamson (the blond) and Shiela Howard.

Larry's classmates chose him as their delegate from eight candidates. On the basis of honor, courage, citizenship, scholarship, leadership, and service, he was chosen.

The Pilgrimage trip included a tour of the capitol, Executive Mansion, Supreme Court Building, and a luncheon in the Governor's Hotel.

Next year's publications editors (Annice Straube (L) and Phyllis Wilhoit) get an early start. Phyllis also won a one-rating on a feature story written for the BOBCASTER and entered in the district contest. This is the second year that she has won one-ratings on individual stories.

Edwin Miller, BGHS senior and president of the BGHS FFA Chapter received a plaque on behalf of the chapter at the annual FFA Parent-Son Banquet for the best swine exhibit at the Missouri State Fair in August of 1964. The plaque was presented by Mr. Leon Dempsey, MFA mgr. in Vandalia.

Walter Northcutt, BGHS senior and sentinel of the local FFA Chapter, received a trophy for the champion carcass barrow at the Missouri State Fair in August of 1964. The trophy was awarded to him at the FFA Parent-Son Banquet which was held March 4. Mr. Len Reimer, M and M Feed representative from Troy, Missouri presented the trophy.

"Hands across the table" seems to be the motto of these four FFA members. These boys, Cecil Harness, junior; Wayne Korte, junior; Walter Northcutt, senior; and Edwin Miller, senior; set a new record at BGHS for having all four boys selected State Farmers.

Win Scholarships

The Curator's scholarship is an award given by a state college or university to those students ranking in the top 1/3 of their graduating class and also ranking the top 1/3 on the Ohio State Psychological test.

The Regent's award differs from the Curator's scholarship only in the amount of the stipend.

The university award is $230 which covers incidental fees for one year. It is given on a semester basis. If a student maintains at least a C average the first semester, he is then entitled to second-semester fees.

Gets Home Ec Award

Mary Ann Smith, BGHS senior, was awarded the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow Award. On an examination of homemaking knowledge and attitudes, Mary Ann received the highest score. Nineteen senior girls took the test on December 1.

Girls State

Roy Finley and Annice Straube were chosen to represent BGHS at Girls' and Boys' State.

Annice attended Girls State in Columbia, Mo., June 13-19, and Roy went to Warrensburg, Mo. for Boys State from June 12-19.

Delegates for these trips were chosen on the basis of leadership, character, scholarship, sportsmanship, courage, honesty, and service.

Groups of students are divided into cities and counties with the counties joining to form a hypothetical state. Elections are held and students choose their own officials to fill the various offices of these divisions in government.

ORGANIZATIONS

Everybody's Spirit Boosters

Five "A" and five "B" cheerleaders led the 52-member BGHS pep squad through a 30 game season with loyalty and spirit.

Leaders tried out for positions and were elected by secret ballot. The season's officers elected were Shiela Howard, Pres.; Janet Scherder, Vice-Pres.; Joyce Bailey, Sec.; Trudie Akers, Treas.; and Kathy Moore, Student Council.

Planning for and participating in pep rallies was a major part of the club's spirit-boosting. For additional activities, see the sports section of this book --tournament and athletic banquet pages in particular.

Sponsors for the year were Miss Joyce Wiley, business dept.; Mrs. Anna Lou Burke, science dept.; and Miss Bette Hemme, English dept.

Council's Interest Widespread

Composed of 20 members, the 1964-65 Student Council sponsored and conducted several school affairs.

The December activity included decorating the school house for Christmas and decorating for and promoting participation in the Christmas party.

The Bowling Green council is a member of the Mo. Association of Student Council and the National Association of Student Councils. The group served as secretary-treasurer of the District Student Council and took care of the EMO-Conference sportsmanship-trophy scoring during the basketball season.

Other activities included locker inspection before each grade-card period, selling Bobcat stickers, selling seats and helping at the gate during home games and at the Bowling Green Tournament. Sponsoring a paperback book rack in the principal's office and conducting election for next year's officers are other functions.

Four delegates went to the State Student Council meeting held at Jefferson City, in March for two days.

Future Student Council plans include sending students to the Summer Workshop at Columbia, Mo. and preparing the new officers for the next year.

Tomorrow's Next Homemakers

"We are the Future Homemakers of America; we face the future with warm courage and high hopes" is a creed familiar to this group.

Regularly sponsored activities included the FFA-FHA barnwarmin'; hootenanny; FHA week (including dress-up day, daddy-date night, teacher appreciation day, mother-daughter tea, grandparent banquet); and style show.

This year, the chapter also attended two regular area meetings and responded to an invitation to a Van-Far regional meeting to hear a German exchange student.

"Chapter Mothers" elected to attend meetings were Mrs. Sam Palmer; Mrs. Everly Clark; Mrs. Charles McDannald, and Mrs. Clem Deters.

Farming's Future Foundation

Future Farmers of America Chapter activities include three hog sales--two in the fall and one in the spring--a turkey shoot, Barnwarmin', Parent and Son banquet, Christmas party, and entering the Pike County Public Speaking Contest.

The boys and adviser, Mr. William Mallory, attend such events as the National FFA Convention and American Royal in Kansas City and the FFA and REA camp for boys in the summer.

Contests entered include sub-district at Grays Summit, district at Kirksville, state at Columbia, and National at Kansas City. Each year at the Missouri State Fair, all of the boys are eligible for the best showmanship awards and for the best swine exhibit.

Fairs attended during summer months include Montgomery City, Mexico, Sedalia (Mo. State Fair), Bowling Green, St. Charles, and Griggsville, Ill. The Chapter is scheduled to go to the National Hampshire Type Conference, the Duroc Congress, National Barrow Show, and Missouri Barrow Show. They also participate in the Swine Short Course and the Field Crops Short Course and attend all state and local swine sales.

Sound-Off Crew

Some of the best sounding people at BGHS last year were the members of this 72 piece Bowling Green Concert band.

Students are eligible to enter the concert band after having had training in the beginners' band, and then in the intermediate band. After completing lessons in the intermediate band a student had to play a series of numbers perfectly, and then pass a written test before advancing into the concert band.

The "Pep" was provided by a 15 piece pep band which played at the home basketball games.

"Aching feet" were the complaint of many band members after they completed the two mile marching trek in the annual Mark Twain Marching Festival held each October in Hannibal, Mo.

The next activity of the band was presenting a Christmas concert Dec. 21, when the band presented compositions keeping with the Christmas spirit.

March 12 was the Mid-Year Concert. Contemporary, festive, and solemn selections were the theme music of this event.

Lighter and more popular music filled the air at the last concert of the year, the Pop-Concert held April 30.

Besides presenting three concerts a year, the event which produces the most fretting, stewing, and nervousness was the State Music Festival held April 3.

Bowling Green's Beginner, Intermediate, and Concert Band are all under the direction of Mr. Marvin Stratmann who was conducting a music session at Curryville when this picture was taken.

Music Leadership Starts Here

The Band Board, elected each year by a majority vote of the members of band, assists Mr. Stratmann. The duties of the Band Board consist of choosing ushers and a narrator for the concerts, deciding on the uniform dress for the concerts, and revising the point system for band letters.

To receive a band letter, 140 points are needed. These points are obtained by performing solos and ensembles, making appearances, ratings at district and state, grade average, practice hours, being on the Band Board, and attending a summer music camp.

Performing as a soloist or in an ensemble counts 10 points toward a letter for each appearance and accompanying a soloist counts 7 points an appearance. Going to summer music camp counts 20 points and being on the Band Board counts 10 points.

Having an E or E- on band grade cards counts 10 points and an S or S-, 7 points. Getting a I rating at district contest counts 15 points and a II rating, 10 points. A I rating at state contest counts 30 points; a II rating, 20 points and a III rating, 10 points.

Fifteen to 22 hours of practice a quarter is worth 2 points toward a letter; 23-29 hours, 4 points; 36-37 hours, 6 points; 38-44 hours, 8 points; and 44 or more hours, 10 points.

Best Vocalists Make Up Choir

The sound of music fills the air as the BGHS Glee Club sings its way through another year. Under the direction of Mr. Raymond Leek. The girls meet on Monday and Wednesday, and the boys on Tuesday and Thursday. The boys and girls practice together on Friday.

Chorus students participate in three concerts each year, the Christmas concert, the Mid-year concert, and the Spring or "Pop" concert. The mid-year concert is the official uniform concert of the year. Uniform for girls' glee club members is dark skirts, white blouses, and black flats. Boys wear dark slacks, white shirts, and ties.

Glee Club is an optional course not requiring audition. However; glee club members who want to go further may audition for choir. Glee Club members receive 1/4 of a fine arts credit per year.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent

Helping to plan and carry out bond elections, helping plan the design of a new high school, determining how to finance the $700,000 cost of the building and equipment, and inspecting the new school as it is being constructed to be sure it is being built to the architects specification are other demanding duties of Superintendent Murry S. Smith.

Administrators Handle Tasks

Completing his fourth year at BGHS Superintendent Murry S. Smith faces more responsibilities each year.

In the past four years R-1 valuation has increased from $3,098,147 to $8,977,231 and the district's area is three times larger.

Enrollment has gone from 811 to over 1400 and high school students have reached 489--337 in 1961. Thirty six teachers handled the teaching load in that year; now it takes 62.

High-school students are offered 59 units of credit compared to 46 in 1961.

Superintendent Smith holds Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees, from Northeast Missouri State Teachers College. This is his 13th year in school administration and his fourth year at R-1.

Mrs. Carol Richards, Secretary to the Superintendent and Treasurer of the School Board, has been employed by the R-1 School district for four and one-half years.

A six-year veteran at BGHS, Principal George Nienhueser holds a Bachelor of Science and a Masters Degree from the University of Missouri. He also has one and one-half years' graduate work beyond the Masters' level.

He has been in administration for seven years, in teaching for nine years, and in the BGHS system for six years.

Facing responsibilities that expand with the enrollment of each additional student, Mr. Nienhueser is currently the "shepherd" of a flock of nearly 500 students--and 24 teachers.

Scheduling 126 classes for 24 teachers and 489 students is another facet of his school life, as is keeping a calendar of school activities which averages over 100 entries a year. Assisting with and attending many of these activities are other duties related to his office.

with Competence and Concern

The record center of the high school, his office is responsible for entering over 4,000 grades per year on permanent record cards as well as for keeping all attendance records.

His secretary, Mrs. Helen Kattelmann, has been at BGHS for the past four years. Twelve hand-picked office staff members (BGHS students) help with the endless activity of this office.

Principal

Newest members of the group, Mr. Buchanan (l.) and Mr. Beavers get "broken in" early.

Superintendent Smith (l.), and School Board President, Mr. Jones concentrate on the problems at hand.

Administrators Are Decision Makers, Burden Carriers

Foremost on the agenda at practically every school board meeting is some phase of this new high-school building due for completion in the 1966 term.

The R-1 school board, often unpraised and misunderstood carries the responsibility of educating most of Pike County's youth.

This year's board is headed by Mr. Hal Jones, who has been a member of the group since 1955 and has been president for the last several years.

Other veterans are Mr. Les Calvert, Bowling Green, a seven-year man; Mr. Calvin Moore, Curryville, and Mr. Robert O'Donel, Cyrene, both four-year servers.

In last April's school election, two Bowling Green men retired from membership. They were Mr. Claude Shaon who had served for 19 years and Mr. Raymond Grote who had been a member for five years.

New members elected were Mr. A. V. Beavers of rural Frankford, and Mr. Waldo Buchanan of Bowling Green.

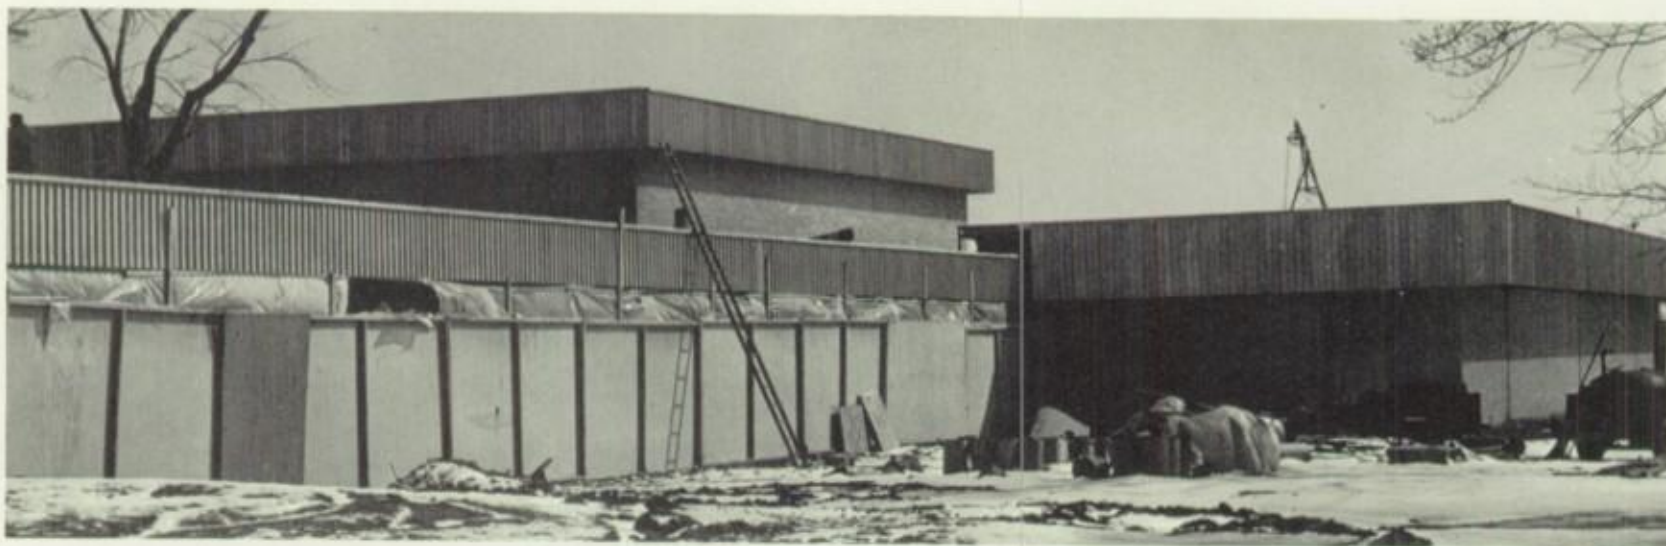

The secretary of the board, an appointed member, is Mr. Jack Freeman of Bowling Green, who has been a member of the group since 1951.

R-1 administrators are served a turkey dinner by the BGHS Home Economics Department.

But it's soon back to business--here are Mr. O'Donel (l.), Mr. Moore, (c.), and Mr. Calvert.
